

Chopin Lives! is organized by Chopin Society of Houston and will take place Saturday, November 1, 2008 at the Houston Community College Town and Country campus in Houston, Texas. It is open to pre-college piano students.

Master classes will be conducted by Mr. Jose Feghali and Mr. Andrey Ponochevny on stage.

A recital will take place to give students an opportunity to perform publically to an appreciative audience.

Any original composition of Fryderyk Chopin may be submitted. If several shorter pieces are selected, they should not exceed the time limit of 7 minutes. All works must be performed by memory. No changes or substitutions will be accepted. Please note: Only original versions will be accepted – No transcriptions – No arrangements!

Applicants and registration fees must be received by Friday, October 10, 2008. Make copies of the form for each participating student. Information on application form must be typed or printed in block letters. A non-refundable fee of $30 for recital performance, $60 for master class or $90 for both must accompany each application. Please make checks payable to: Chopin Society of Houston. Send the application material to:

Chopin Society of Houston
1938 Baker Trail,
Houston, TX 77094

Teachers will be notified times of their students immediately after closing the list of applicants. This list will be published on our website at www.chopinsocietyofhouston.org.

Students participating in performance classes and private lessons are required to bring their music.

All performers participating in the recital are expected to wear appropriate attire to ensure a proper atmosphere. Chopin Society of Houston reserves the right to record all performances during the event for use at its own discretion. By signing the application form the parent/ guardian renounces all rights and fees.
